

The TechTrainer is a weekly newsletter distributed to Eastern Howard employees providing technology tips, updates about training opportunities, and school technology news. The publication is in its second year and has undergone minor transformations along the way. We hope you enjoy the TechTrainer and that it becomes an integral part of your weekly must have literature. You can find all of the tech trainer articles linked individually below.

{doclist hideTitle}43{/doclist}